To

The Secretary to Government,

Law (General) Department,

Madras.

Sir,

Towns Nuisances Act III of 1889--Temporary extensions to Subramania and Dharmastala villages--Puttur Taluk--South Kanara District--Draft notifications -sent.

The President, Taluk Board, Puttur, recommends that the Towns Nuisances Act may be extended to the villages of Subramania and Dharmastala as resolved by the Panchayat Boards of those villages on the ground that important annual jatras are held in those villages, that about 8,000 to 10,000 people gather at the time and that the making of proper sanitary arrangements is not of much use unless the Towns Nuisances Act is in force at the same time.

2. In Subramania village an important annual cattle fair called the "Kulgunda cattle fair" will be held from 2nd November 1932 to 17th November 1932 and this is followed immediately by the Shasti festival in the Temple from 18th November 1932 to 24th November 1932, In Dharmastala village the annual illumination festival will be held from 13th November 1932 to 17th November 1932. As the President, Taluk Board, states that sufficient latrine accommodation has been made, I see no objection to the extension of the Act temporarily for the period of the festival. I submit herewith draft notifications under sub section(3)

4 enclosures

of section 1 of the [illegible] approved and published in the [illegible] Gazette.

2. As the Kulgunj fair is [illegible] I request that orders may be issued promptly.
